DEDICATION OF CHURCH BANNERS AT SUMMIT

Leader: Creator God, who splashes the sky with bright reds at sunset and flamboyant pinks at dawn, thank you for color!

Congregation: We praise you for artists who create pictures of these hues with paintbrush, dye, jewelry and sewing machines.

Leader: Today we celebrate the gift of Lydia, who sold purple cloth, realizing the beauty of colorful cloth, reminiscent of your beauty in nature.

Congregation: We dedicate these banners to the glory of God. We give thanks for the creativity and artistry of Bob Regier and for the dedicated skills of Vivian in sewing these banners depicting the church year.

Leader: May these pieces of artwork lead us to adore you, Lord God, in their symmetry and design.

Congregation: May their vivid colors lift our hearts to praise you for all beauty. May our voices sing of your mighty deeds as we enjoy the warmth of their direction, repetition and contrast.

Leader: May the softness of the fabric match the openness in our souls to your touch, to your fashioning our lives after the One whose denial was marked by a crowing cock, whose earthly body was clothed in darkness for three days before you raised Him from the dead.

Congregation: Draw on our hearts the patterns of your heart. Cut deep into our fabric where our selfish choices diminish the Kingdom. Align the design of our lives so that our worship and our lives brilliantly contrast the counterfeit in the world around us.

Leader: We give you thanks, too, Lord, for all talents of the Body here at Summit, from the grass cutters to the singers, from the bakers to the worship leaders, from the story tellers to the songsters and the instrumentalists. Most of all, we are grateful for the willingness to use these gifts to your service and for your glory.

Congregation: Weave us into your tapestry of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Make our Body your masterpiece. Amen.
