Focus Statement: "The church today needs men [and women] like Micah who can see the connection between the Western world's spurning of its Christian heritage and the international crises that surround it."

Please continue to pray for healing for Bob Unger. He appreciates cards and visits.

If you are interested in working at the Glendora House for Family Promise contact Pauline Egan at 330-280-0496 or pauline@familypromisesc.org. They are hoping to have it finished by the end of February and need volunteers to paint, clean, and assemble furniture.

The Google Doc. has been completed through June. Please take time to look at the document to see where you have a part in Sunday church responsibilities. We could use a few more volunteers for the Nursery and for the Children's story. If you want to be a Greeter and are not listed, you can be added in the second half of the year. Contact Viv Jaberg for any of these opportunities. To access the Google Doc., go to Summit's web site: www.summitmennonite.org. Scroll down the left side of the home page and click on "Google Link to Sunday Church Responsibilities." Click on the link to the Google Doc.

Thank you to the countless volunteers who made the Great Winter Warm-up a success! Groups of all sizes gathered in more than 100 events in churches and homes across the United States, Canada and Europe. At the two-day event in Kidron, volunteers completed 122 comforters! Preliminary estimates are over 5,700 comforters received in total, and that number is only expected to grow as the official counting continues through the end of the month. Every one of the comforters completed during the event is important. When families are uprooted from home and lack basic necessities, comforters are a versatile tool—functioning as bed covers, room dividers, carpets, curtains, wraps, mattresses and more. MCC thanks you for your part in providing warmth and hope to people around the world!
